FRANKFORT,

The Washington Monument.

The old and disgraceful proverb, that 'republics are ungrateful' is likely to become verified in our country if the people of the United States do not speedily wake from their apathy and indifference in regard to the construction of the Washington Monument. The receipts for last month were only one fourth of the actual expenses. Think of that, men who call yourselves Americans, and blush at your forgetfulness of, or disregard for the memory of the revered Washington.—Was England unmindful of the services of her NELSON, or France of her NAPOLEON? No, for in every part of those isles polished shafts can be seen pointing upwards to Heaven, their sides blazoned with the deeds of the departed. And, will the people of that land, which was rescued from English tyranny by his tact and foresight, and placed high among the nations of the earth, by his prudence and wisdom, allow his actions to be related only by the pages of history or handed down from generation to generation, until they assume the form of legendary narrations, or will they erect a column commensurate with his greatness and his goodness and upon which shall be graven the deeds which have rendered his fame co-extensive with the whole world? We trust that there is no heart so devoid of patriotic remembrance, in our land, but what will say, let it rise.

How many thousands of dollars are annually expended in receiving and entertaining foreigners, who, when their money and credit is exhausted, come to this country to play upon the gullibility of our population. When distinguished foreigners visit us with honorable motives, treat them with respect, but we can see no need of lionizing them. If the money wasted in such foolish entertainment, had been expended on the Washington Monument, this national obelisk would have ascended much higher than it now is, and the people of this Union would have been spared much national obloquy.

Then Americans, lovers of the memory of the great Washington, be up and doing. The 30th of this month has been designated as thanksgiving day by the Executives of a number of the States, and a number of our exchanges have suggested that day as a suitable occasion to make collections in all of the churches throughout the land, to aid in the completion of the monument. There could be no more appropriate day, and we hope the suggestion will be readily adopted.

Men of America! Recollect the midnight march across the Delaware River, when the intrepid Washington, led his bare-footed soldiers; recollect his sufferings during that severe winter at Vally Forge, recollect the almost superhuman wisdom he displayed, when at the head of our national affairs; recollect his legacy—in short remember all his actions and then see if you can find it your heart to refuse in your mite towards raising a monument to him who was "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

SEBASTOPOL NOT TAKEN YET.—The America has arrived with a week's later news from Europe. The allies were cannonading Sebastopol, but had not taken it. The Russians claim to have retaken a small fortress. The Russian Admiral had declared that he would defend Sebastopol to the last. The Austrian army has been puton a war footing, and Austria had summoned Russia to evacuate Gallacia. The news is very interesting.

The London Times says that they are informed that Mr. Soule, the American Minister at Madrid, was, on Tuesday, the 14th, refused permission to pass through France on his return from England to Spain.

The Post announces, semi-officially, the acquisition of Sama, and says it amounts virtually, if not absolutely, to the annexation of St. Domingo. This acquisition by the United States of so important a position is threatening, on either hand the Spanish Island of Cuba, and so directly affecting the British West India possessions that it cannot be received with indifference.

☞In Indianapolis, Saturday night, the extensive flouring mill of Harris & Bro., and the adjoining cabinet manufactory of Sloan & Co., were destroyed by fire.

☞Col. John L. Bolling, of Perryville, Boyle county, is a candidate for Representative in the next State Legislature.—Col. Bolling is a gentleman and a good Democrat.

☞A letter from Blandenburg, Ky., states that the cholera has disappeared from that place. Among the victims were John S. Robertson, son of Cyrus Robertson, and Mrs Robertson, wife of Cyrus Robertson.

☞Saturday last, the ninth stock sale day at Mayslick, was devoted to the sale of weaned mules, which sold at an average of $53 per head. This depreciation in prices is attributed to the scarcity of winter provender.

OUTRAGE.—The Paducah Journal says that on last Saturday evening some officers or employers of the steamer Jas. Trabue followed two deck passengers up into town, and, under the pretext that said passengers had not paid their fare, fell upon them with bludgeons and most brutally abused them.

☞A man named Thomas Lyles hired Wm. Rose, of Franklin county, Tennessee, to move him to some portion of Alabama; and when in a few miles of Huntsville, Lyles killed Rose, and went on to Florence with Rose's wagon and two yoke of oxen, where he sold them at public auction. The brother of Rose is in pursuit of the murderer.

A number of the surviving passengers of the Arctic, on their way from Canada to New York, went on board of the steamer Canada, then at Burlington, Vermont, and having saved from the wreck nothing but their lives, appealed to the captain for a free passage down Lake Champlain. The captain, it is said, refused. But the captain had opportunity very soon to learn that, in this word, meanness is not always wisdom. First, he was rebuked by the passengers and crew of his own vessel, who paid the passage money for the penniless wayfarers.—Then the matter was taken in hand by the captain of a rival steamboat, and by the boys of the Burlington College. The boys passed indignant resolutions; and the rival captain, finding them in the right humor, got them on board of his boat, for a free jaunt to Plattsburg and back By the way, they met, of course, the Canada and her niggard captain; and the boys serenaded him with groans, and read their resolutions at him.

Let our readers compare the conduct of the infamous wretch above mentioned, to the noble conduct of the gallant boy hero Stewart Holland, and draw their own conclusions, as to which was the man.

☞Rev. Joshua T. Russell, a Baptist clergyman at Jackson, Miss., recently closed a very eloquent address before the Bible Society with these words:

'Millions who are now around the throne of God, singing the song of Moses and the Lamb, have been saved by the influence of this book.' While uttering these words, he looked up as if he had a vision of what he described, then paused a moment, and saying, 'I have done,' sat down, and was immediately seized with a fatal attack of apoplexy.

On Saturday last, a large concourse of people gathered in from this and adjoining counties, to witness the execution of Perry. Men, women with babies in their arms, children, and niggers innumerable, came, some of them ten or twelve miles, to witness what, we presume, they considered an entertaining spectacle. Such a motley rabble we never saw before, and we hope we never shall again. Rejuvenated Rip Van Winkles, resurrected pre-Adamites, resuscitated antediluvian fossils, and withered hags, who looked like mummies broken loose from their sepulchres, thronged the streets by squadrons. We noticed a large number of young ladies in attendance, in all the overpowering splendor of artificial flowers and gingerbread.—Princeton South Kentuckian, Nov. 4.

☞The Cincinnati Gazette, of the 8th inst, furnishes the following:

The Covington and Lexington Railroad Company made a sale of bonds, in New York, a short time since, deliverable on the 1st inst. They forwarded the bonds to Winslow, Ramier & Co., drew against them, and sold the bills; but the purchasers failed to take the bonds, and the bills were consequently returned. A portion of the latter were taken by Kentucky banks, and have been arranged. About $50,000 was sold on this side, to bankers and merchants, and these the Company are arranging to take up.

☞A great decline in real estate is taking place in New York. New stores in Chambers street and the neighborhood, which could easily be rented on the 1st of May at $8,000 per year, are now offered at a yearly rental of $4,000, with no takers.

☞John Cunningham, a magistrate and leading citizen of Trigg county, died last week.

☞Mr. Isaac H. Caldwell, former editor of the Green River Whig, has received the appointment of Cashier of the Bank in Hopkinsville.

THE MATRIMONIAL MARKET IN AUSTRALIA.—A letter from Ballirat, by the last arrival says:

Matrimonial affairs are looking up here; maidens of all degrees, and widows, fair, fat, but far from 40, have from 10 to a score of admirers on each of their lists; it is to be hoped that some few of them will soon be paired off, or there is no saying how many suicides, duels, or bindings over to keep the peace may speedily ensue

☞The Hon. R. H. Stanton will accept our thanks for a copy of the Eighth Annual Report of the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution.

REV. STEWART ROBINSON'S CHURCH.—This magnificent edifice at the corner of Liberty and Saratoga streets is rapidly approaching to completion, and promises to be one of the most beautiful as well as substantial structures in our city. It will be known as the Central Presbyterian Church. It is built after the Roman style of architecture, fronting on Saratoga street with a high square tower. The interior is 72 by 84 feet, and with its capacious galleries, will afford accommodation for 1,300. The arrangement of the galleries is peculiar, giving a less heavy appearance than usual to those of the sides, while the absence of any front gallery, (except a light balcony on brackets,) relieves the building of the gloomy and low entrance, which is always to be found in churches having front galleries. The pitch of the ceiling is high and the segment arch will give an appearance of greater elevation. The basement is open and convenient, and will accommodate all the different requirements of the church. Lecture Room of great size; extensive accommodations for Sunday Schools, room for the pastor, library and fuel rooms and furnaces. The entrance is through a brown stone vestibule 12 by 30 feet, communicating with Saratoga street by three large doorways capable of passing a large number of persons at once. The galleries are reached by wide flights of stairs, and in the large square tower a flight of steps ascends to the belfry. The front of the galleries as well as the columns and brackets are to be of cast iron work of rich patterns.

The exterior of the building is simple; the windows are not numerous, but they are quite large and are ornamented with boldly moulded caps. The front openings are enriched, and the tower, which is the principal feature and ornament, will be finished with a richly decorated turret. The whole outside will be plastered and painted, the window dressings and string course being all of brown free-stone. The position of this building very much improves the street, a large additional opening being given, and the church faced so as to be seen to advantage on each approach. The removal of the old building which encumbered the corner lots and the substitution of so handsome a structure, has entirely changed the appearance of this part of town and certainly much increased the value. Rev. Stewart Robinson is the pastor of the church.—The congregation, since its secession from the Associate Reformed Church, Fayette street, has been worshipping in the New Assembly Rooms.—[Baltimore American 4th.

LINES

Suggested at the grave of the young and much lamented LEWIS CRUTCHER.*

As when from out a cloudless sky
At morn, when youth's bright hopes are high,
That joy will crown the day.
A sudden burst of thunder peals,
And storms on elemental wheels,
Drive all their hopes away.

O'erwhelmed by disappointment's blast,
Warm tears will chase each other fast
Down cheeks onured to tears.
Th' impression of that day of grief,
Though others lend a kind relief,
Will live in future years.

So burst along the trembling wire,
The unwelcome truth as tongues of fire
Announced thy early doom.
We who had hoped that future days
Would see thy star of glory blaze,
Now yield thee to the tomb.

Thy noble brow, and modest mein,
The Godlike, and the child between,)
Were loved where thou wert known.
Loved for thy kind and generous heart,
And all that virtue could impart,
For these were all thine own.

Our bitter tears will flowin vain,
The grave will not restore again
Whom death hath snatched away.
Youth waves no wand to stay his hands,
Nor virtue to increase the sands
Of life another day.

The rose when plucked in early bloom,
Though faded flings a sweet perfume
Upon the balmy air.
So virtue may survive the tomb,
And light the chambers of its gloom
For those who linger there.

Sweet bloom the flowers above his bier,
Remembering that one slumbers here
Within this silent grave,
Who in life's young impulsive day,
"Was virtuous, worthy, noble, gay,
Learned, generous, and brave."

We mourn thy loss, but not as those
Who have no hope. Beyond our woes
In bright and changeless spheres,
Faith, smiling, whispers soon, oh soon
I will be, to meet thy glorious boon
Beyond this vale of tears,

Those 'Precepts' of a father's love,
All pointed to that home above,
Where now his spirit reign.
To keep the road thy saint trod,
And serve the same approving God,
Is all that now remains.

"This gifted young man left his happy home in Franklin county, to pursue a course of studies, at the celebrated college of Bethany, Va.—He bid farewell to all his friends to be absent but a few months, and then return among them, prepared to enter some useful profession.—Resident of health, and the genial spirits of youth, he parted with a doting father's blessing to company with some others, destined to the same place. Scarcely had he been missed, as it were, from his circle of friends, before they were startled by a telegraphic dispatch from Wheeling, announcing that he was lying at the point of death. This was followed in a few hours by another. He was in the spirit land! None but those who were attached to him from a personal knowledge of his worth, and appreciation of his amiable qualities, may weep. Their tears will not mingle with those shed over his grave. His disease was Flux. The attack was sudden and violent, and ran its hurried course to a fatal termination.

'Tell my dear father, said he when life was ebbing fast away, 'not to fear for me I have followed the precepts.'

The Germans have produced some very excellent remedies for various diseases. Among which may be specified "Dr. Hoffands celebrated bitters," for sale by C. M. Jackson—and used with remarkable success in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and a general derangement of the stomach The Sunday Despatch says of this medicine:—

"We feel convinced, that in the use of the German Bitters the patient does not become debilitated, but constantly gains strength and vigor to the frame—a fact worthy of great consideration. The Bitters are pleasant in taste and in smell, and can be administered under any circumstances, to the most delicate stomach. Indeed they can be used by all persons with the most perfect safety. It would be well for those who are much affected in the nervous system, to commence with one teaspoonful or less, and gradually increase. We speak from experience, and are, of course, a proper judge. The press far and wide, have united in commending the German Bitters, and to the afflicted we most cordially advise their use."

An infallible Remedy for Bile, Jaundice, and Liver Complaints, Holloway's Pills.—Extract from a letter from Jane Jenkins, of Apalachicola, Florida, to Professor Holloway.—"I suffered for seven months fear jaundice and bile, arising from a very disordered state of the liver, during this time, although I tried many remedies I obtained no relief for my sufferings. At length, I purchased a quantity of your Pills, and after using five boxes, I was perfectly cured, and with confidence recommend them to others who are thus afflicted."

☞ We are requested by Col. DeKorponay to say that he will positively begin his dancing classes, at the Capital Hotel, on next Wednesday.

☞ We invite the attention of our readers to the card of Dr. Ricardo, which will be found in another column. The Doctor is very extensively known as an eminent physician, and master of seven languages. He has shown us a number of notices of himself, taken from papers in all parts of the Union, and to let those of our readers who are not already acquainted with his capabilities, know who and what he is, we publish the following from the Cincinnati Commercial. Such a faithful attendant upon the sick should be rewarded:

"In another column will be found a communication on cholera, by Dr. Ricardo. The Doctor is a remarkable man.—He writes seven languages without the aid of a dictionary, has a scar on his face from a wound received at Waterloo; was a surgeon among our troops in the Mexican war, has been familiar with epidemic diseases from Constantinople to the City of Mexico, and for some years past, wherever in the United States, cholera or yellow fever has been doing the work of death with the most awful celerity—there he has he been in the midst. He is just from Pittsburg, where he has been during all the time of the cholera, risking his life in behalf of the patients. The writings of such a man merit extraordinary consideration."

THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES.—Dr. Thomas H. Greenhough, an eminent and celebrated physician of New Orleans, is now on a visit to this city, stopping at the Capital Hotel, where he will remain for a few days only, for the purpose of affording invalids an opportunity of placing themselves under his treatment. Dr. G.'s reputation as a successful and responsible practitioner is amply evidenced by the N. Orleans press, which is a sufficient guarantee of his skill and respectability apart from other testimonials which have been shown us and which will be exhibited to all interested.

We subjoin an editorial from the New Orleans Delta and call attention to a card of the Doctor's in another column:

DR. T. H GREENHOUGH.—This gentleman is astonishing our citizens daily by his wonderful cures of consumption in its first and second stages, and by the positive relief he gives to those who are suffering in the more advanced stages of that terrible disorder. The Doctor is a veteran physician in service though not in years, and his experience has been so great, that he can tell you your bodily infirmities as truly as you can yourself describe them. The certificate of Dr. De Hart, published in our issue of Saturday last, is, of itself, all sufficient to convince those who are disposed to doubt—but a limited certificate of cure cannot convey a proper idea of the Doctor's great ability and his professional accomplishments, therefore, we advise all who have coughs, colds incipient consumption, asthma, bronchitis and other affections of the throat and lungs, to give him an early call as by so doing he will certainly save the most awful of suffering and great expense. Neglect and procrastination are the richest jewels in hordes leading to consumption, while prompt attention will relieve. The sufferer at the Dr. Greenhough practises the new and successful method of Inhalation combined with constitutional treatment; thus while inhalation is made to the diseased lungs, the constitution is purified throughout, and completely rid of those corruptions prone to consumption, and which clog and choke up the natural functions of the human system.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—The North Star has has arrived, bringing a fortnight later news from California.

The Yankee Blade, which left San Francisco on the 30th of September for Panama, was wrecked the following day. She had on board 300 passengers besides the crew. She struck a reef of rocks off Point Arguillo, 15 miles above Point Conception, About 15 lives were lost.—All of the specie ($153,000) on board was lost. The vessel is a total wreck. In a day or two she will be washed to pieces. The fog hung upon the coast, and the captain supposed the ship to be 20 miles from land when she struck. There were terrible scenes of pillage after she struck the reef. The passengers were rescued by the steamer Goliah. The following are the names of the lost; 4 children of Mrs. Lingslown, Mrs. Beckman and child, Mrs. Summer and child, Mrs. Smith and child, Mr. Moor and child, and Frank Mitchell.

The steamer Brother Jonathan arrived at San Francisco on the 15th with the passengers from the wreck of the Yankee Blade.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.

This is a hard day for money with our dry goods dealers, but they will probably weather the storm.

An immense number of notes were paid at the banks to-day, in fact so large a number was never paid in any day before.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.

The Arctic's boat, brought hither by the Osprey, was tested at noon to-day under the charge of Capt. Sidesbery. At the request of Mr. Collins, fifty-seven full-grown men embarked and were rowed about the river for half an hour, the bulwarks of the boat being sixteen inches out of water. Among the persons on board were a number of sea-captains, who agreed that the boat would have been perfectly safe with 60 persons, provisions, water, &c.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.

NEW YORK ELECTIONS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.

Baker the Know-Nothing candidate for mayor is elected!

Gov. Seymour is probably re-elected. The returns are not sufficiently complete to tell with certainty. The counting in the city is not complete owing to the large number of tickets and scattering votes.

CINCINNATI, Nov 8, P. M.

The excitement on Third street continued all the afternoon. T. S. Goodman & Co. and John R. Morton & Co. closed their doors after dinner. All the suspended houses report an excess of assets.

There was a run on Hatch & Langdon, but they continued to pay up to the close of banking hours. There was no run on the other houses.

Mr. Ellis, of the firm of Ellis & Sturgis, is very sick of the congestion of the brain.

Frederick George, acting President of the Covington and Lexington Railroad, committed suicide to-day by throwing himself across the track His head was severed from his body. He has been dejected since the return of the bill from New York drawn against the bonds of the company, supposed to have been sold in New York, a million of which he, with the other directors, was interested.

New YORK, Nov. 5.

The returns thus far give a majority of votes for Fernando Wood over Baker (Know-Nothing) for mayor. The contest is extremely close, but the chances are in favor of Wood John Kelly beats Mike Walsh for Congress. The Tribune adheres to the opinion that Seymour will be elected Governor, and thinks Scraggs (Know-Nothing) will be Lieut. Governor, or possibly Raymond, owing to Ludlow running behind his ticket. Returns thus far:—for Ullman 50,126 Seymour 47 389, Clerk 37,620 Brouson 7 4 2. The mayor's vote is unsettled, but in comparison the same is at noon. Seymour, at which it was resolved a committee be appointed to prepare a communication to the President of the United States in reference to the better protection of life and vessels navigating the ocean, and request that he would communicate the same to Congress, for their action. ## "MAN KNOW THYSELF."

An Invaluable Book for 25 Cents.

Every family should have a copy.

100,000 Copies sold a year. A new and revised edition, just published, containing containing an outline of the causes, symptoms and treatment and cure of every form of disease, contracted by promiscuous sexual intercourse, by self abuse, or by sexual excesses, with advice for cure, prevention, etc., etc., in a style to be understood by all, and free from all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the ear of decency, from the result of forty years successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of sexual and blood diseases.

In which is also contained a treatise on the cure of the above diseases, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague.

Testimonials from Professors of Obstetrics in Penn. Colleges, Physicians, Ministers, Editors, and Jackson's Medical Messenger.

"The Author is one of the most learned and scientific writers who ever graced the medical profession of the United States. His treatment of certain diseases is unequalled, and his success is almost miraculous. It would be an honor and interest to any young man to place the greatest confidence.

JOSEPH LONGSHORE, M. D.

From A. Woodward, M. D., of Penn. University Philadelphia.—It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Author of the Medical Manual." Concerning cases of Diseases of the Genital Organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has been manifested in restoring to perfect health, in some instances, where the patient has been considered beyond the reach of medicine, in the greatest out of Seminal weakness, as a consequence of the secretions produced by Self Abuse, or Excess of every kind. I do not know his success in the profession. I have been acquainted with the Author for thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to state as well as a kindness to the unfortunate victim of evil disease, to recommend him as one in whose professional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.

ALFRED WOODWARD, M. D.

"This is, without exception, the most comprehensive work published in the English language, of which it treats. Avoiding all technicalities, and addressing itself to the reason of its readers. It is a complete medical manual, and no parent, however fastidious, can object to placing it in the hands of his son. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and with too little breath to puff, and too little presumption to parade, he gives to the world at the merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruits of some twenty years of successful practice."—Herald.

No teacher or parent should be without the knowledge imparted in this new and valuable work. It will save years of pain, mortification and misery to many a reader their chagrin.—People's Advocate.

A Press reviewer, (Ohio), in writing of "Hunter's Medical Manual," says: "Thousands upon thousands of our youth, by evil example and the influence of the passions, have been led into the habit of self-pollution without realizing the sin and fearful consequences upon themselves and their posterity. The constitutions of thousands, who are raising families, have been benefitted, if not broken down, and they do not know the cause or the cure. Anything that can be done so to enlighten and influence the public mind as to check, and ultimately to remove this wide-spread curse of human wretchedness, would confer the greatest blessing next to the redemption of Jesus Christ, on the present and coming generations. Intemperance, for the use of intoxicating drinks, although it has slain its hundreds and ten thousands, is not a greater scourge to the human race. Accept our thanks on behalf of the afflicted, and believe me your co-worker in the good work you are so actively engaged in.

One copy, (securely enveloped,) will be forwarded free of postage to any part of the United States for 25 cents, or 6 copies for $1. Address (post paid) COSDEN & CO., Publishers, Box 136, Philadelphia.

☞Booksellers, Canvassers and Book Agents supplied on the most liberal terms.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Dear Sir,—

I am happy to inform you that I have been entirely cured of a bad leg by the use of your Ointment and Pills. For nine years I was afflicted with a sore leg, during which time I had the best medical advice that could be procured, but all to no purpose, as I grew worse all the time. I was induced to make a trial of your Ointment and Pills, and am happy to say that I have been entirely cured by them. I have recommended them to many persons since I was cured, and they have all been cured by them. I am willing that the above statement of my case should be published.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A BAD LEG OF FIFTEEN YEARS STANDING.

Copy of a letter from Mr. R. Reeves, New Orleans, Nov. 1, 1853:

To Professor HOLLOWAY, 38, Corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, New York.

Dear Sir,—I was induced to purchase your Ointment and Pills, from the fact of my wife having been cured of a bad leg by their use, after suffering with it for fifteen years. I had a bad leg for fifteen years, and tried almost every remedy I could hear of, but got no relief. I saw your Ointment and Pills advertised, and purchased a box of the Ointment and a box of the Pills, and commenced using them, and in the course of two months I was entirely cured. I have since used them in my family for various complaints, and have found them to be the best medicine I ever used. I have recommended them to many persons, and shall continue to do so, as I know they will do all that is recommended for them.
